Statistics Canada provides data in many forms...

The statistics contained in this brochure have been compiled by Statistics Canada, the nation's central statistical agency. They represent a small cross-section of the Agency's products, but give a good indication of current social and economic trends.

Statistics Canada offers information in various forms. Besides print publications, data are available on CD, diskette, computer print-out, microfiche and microfilm, and magnetic tape. Direct on-line access to aggregated information is possible through CANSIM, Statistics Canada's database and retrieval system.

Statistics Canada's World Wide Web site www.statcan.ca is your direct route to statistical information profiling Canada's business, economy and society.

Education Resources on the Web site allows you to integrate statistics into your classroom and has lessons for Canada at a Glance.

The Statistical Profile of Canadian Communities contains information from the 1996 Census on more than 6,000 communities including metropolitan areas, cities, villages, and Indian reserves and settlements. The profile highlights information on education, income and work, cultural characteristics, families and dwellings, as well as general population information including births and deaths.
